

Two Great Press Associations Cable News to "The Star"

The Star, Retaining Membership In The Associated Press, Greatest Newsgathering Organization In The World, Has Also Joined The United Press, Its Great American Rival. * The Star Now Gets Cable Service Every Day From Both

Up to now Honolulu's newspapers have been served almost exclusively by the Associated Press. * Splendid as that service has been, and still is, we believe that a supplemental and independent report from its rival association will be of great value. * In harmony with the progress Honolulu is making as a community, The Star has improved its telegraph service by adding the service of the United Press Associations. * In the reporting of great events, it will at times be of the deepest interest to compare the two reports of these great newsgathering organizations.

COLLINS LOSES FIRST BLOOD

An order quashing service of summons and restraining order in the injunction suit of C. R. Collins against the heirs and trustees of the Austin estate, Boston, Mass., was signed by Judge Robinson yesterday morning. The suit was to restrain the respondents from canceling a lease of King street premises on which complainant has erected a building.

DENIES IT

Detective William Welch, who has been suspended from the force by Sheriff Jarrett, pending investigation of a serious charge to the effect that he compelled a Hawaiian woman to enter a room in a notorious resort, Hirono's on Kukui street, at the point of a revolver, yesterday morning while not suggesting any explanation of the circumstances upon which the woman's charge is based, volunteered the following denial:

"In answer to the charge of having committed a breach of the law in which a revolver was used by myself, I deny it and, what's more, defy them or any one who charges me with the same. "The Sheriff and his Deputy have the matter in hand and I am sure will leave no stone unturned in seeking the ends of justice in this matter.

"My reputation of my family is at stake, my only wish is that the investigation be a speedy one."

SUNDAY RIOT

Hamamoto, a Japanese who, on a bicycle, Sunday, ran over a Portuguese boy in Kakaako, and who, after the riot ended, was arrested for drunkenness and allowed to put up bail, failed to appear in police court yesterday morning.

His drunken accident was the cause of a mix-up between a lot of Portuguese friends and relatives of the boy who got the bicycle in the neck, and a smaller but more warlike lot of Japanese.

During said riot one Japanese was hit behind the ear and is now enjoying the honorable hospital under the name of Kuraashima.

OAHU COLLEGE LIBRARY TALKS

A new feature of the work at Oahu College this year is a series of addresses to be delivered to the school upon subjects related to books, libraries and reading. It is the desire of the trustees that the library expand its influence to keep pace with the increase of resources which it is enjoying. The first address will be devoted to the history of the book, and will be given by the librarian tomorrow morning at 8.20.

The addition of a cataloger to the staff at Cooke Library has made it possible to hasten the work of organization. Cataloging is progressing satisfactorily, and the material in the collection is becoming more and more available. While the library aims primarily to meet the demands of the school its shelves are open to the public generally. A large number of borrowers, other than those living on the college campus, have already been enrolled. Blanks to be used in making application for the privileges of Cooke Library may be secured at the library or at the college office.
